

NALINI V. JUTHANI, MD.

Nalini Juthani is a retired Professor of Psychiatry at the Albert Einstein College of Medicine (AECOM) in New York. She was the Residency Program Director and Assistant Dean for Undergraduate affairs at the Bronx Lebanon Hospital Center for 25 years in New York. She is currently an Accreditation Representative of the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME). Nalini is the past president of IAPA during 1999-2000. During her presidency, the Outstanding Resident Award was introduced. She is currently the elected chairperson of the IAPA Board of Trustees.

Nalini is a diplomat of the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology (ABPN) and served as an oral Board Examiner for over 10 years. She was nominated by APA and appointed by ACGME as a member of the Residency Review Committee (RRC) of Psychiatry. She served on the Executive committee of the American association of the Directors of Psychiatric Residency (AADPRT). During her career of 30 years in Psychiatry, she has served the APA through various Committees and Components including the component on Religion and Spirituality. Nalini has received numerous awards. Note worthy ones are:

- 1. Spirituality and Medicine
Psychiatric Residency Curricular Award given by: National Institute for Healthcare Research April 14, 1998
- 2. Invited to comment on Practice
Guidelines published as supplement to
The American Journal of Psychiatry by American Psychiatric Association.
 - a) Practice Guideline for the Treatment of Patients with Nicotine Dependence.
Vol. 153, No. 10 October 1996
 - b) Practice Guideline for the
Treatment of Patients with Schizophrenia.
Vol. 154, No. 4 April 1997.
- 3. Judge: Spirituality & Medicine
Psychiatric Residency Curriculum
Awards Program of National Institute for Healthcare Research: 1998, 1999, 2000, 2002, 2003
- 4. George Tarjan Award given by the Committee on International
Graduates of the American Psychiatric Association, 2007